Launch of Serenity Pastures

Being part of Bakeri doesn't end at giving you a home to live in; it gives you a community to belong to. So, what better way to launch the newest of the Serenity Series, than with a community gathering at the Serenity Pastures! The event held on 7th September, 2014 was attended by families with gusto en masse. Myriad activities ensured wholesome happiness to one and all. The whole day family affair gave them a glimpse of life on a carefree weekend filled with endless amusement, right in the center of untamed but tranquil sanctuary of Serenity Pastures.

KALEIDOSCOPE

(A recap of past events)

Bakeri at 55!

The mark of an organization is not merely measured by money or the number of clients; it's measured by the indelible mark it has on the industry it belongs to and the people it serves. This is why, after 55 years, Bakeri is still celebrated as the most trusted real estate developer in Gujarat.

This incredible achievement would not have been possible without you. It is this unshakeable loyalty of yours that has kept us going and inspired us to stick to ethical practices.

HANDY-DANDY

Get the festive look with a beautiful Rangoli this Diwali!

Rangoli patterns can be in floral or geometric shape, and are usually outlined in white powder and then filled with colored powder. Here are a few pointers to create your own masterpiece:

1. Wipe off the floor clean before you create the rangoli. Use a wet cloth for cleaning it. Let it dry.
2. Draw the outline of the rangoli design using a chalk.
3. Trace the lines with white colour (Chiroli).
4. Fill up the designs and the gaps by sprinkling colour very carefully. Use your thumb and the index finger to take a pinch of powder and sprinkle it carefully by rubbing the fingers. Be careful the colors should not merge up on the borderlines.
5. It's important to make sure that the entire pattern must be filled entirely.
6. You can also leave spaces in the rangoli to place diya or decorative candles.
7. If you want your Rangoli to be extra-festive, you can decorate the plain white tea candles with paint or glitters. Place your decorative candles in the Rangoli, light it up and, and enjoy!
